

PASKA – Haitian Congolese Sensation

PASKA is a captivating Haitian-Congolese artist whose magnetic stage presence, genre-blending sound, and multilingual talent have earned him recognition across the Caribbean, Africa, Europe, and beyond. With a career that bridges cultures and connects audiences through R&B, Hip Hop, Pop, and Konpa, he stands out as one of the most promising voices of his generation.

Biography

Originally from Port-au-Prince, PASKA is a dynamic Haitian-Congolese artist who has been immersed in a rich, multicultural environment with diverse musical influences since childhood.

At the age of 11, he discovered his passion for singing. Inspired by Chris Brown and Michael Jackson, he formed a Rap/R&B group at 12, releasing a track in tribute to the victims of the 2010 Haiti earthquake.

By 14, he launched his solo career, showcasing original compositions blending R&B, Hip Hop, and Pop.

Career Highlights

A rising star in the Haitian music scene, PASKA has performed alongside prominent local and international artists such as Rutshelle Guillaume, Lorenz, and Lycinais Jean, while refining his distinctive style in songwriting, composition, and beatmaking.

As a songwriter, composer, performer, dancer, and beatmaker, PASKA embodies the definition of a complete artist.
